1 TO ALL PARTIES AND TO THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 Defendants John Stossel, Glenn Ruppel, American Broadcasting Companies,
3 Inc., and ABC, Inc. (collectively, "ABC"), hereby respond and object to the Notice
4 of Deposition ("Notice") served by Plaintiff Frederick K.C. Price ("Price"), for the 5 deposition of John Stossel to be conducted on August 25, 2008, at 10:00 a.m., at 6 Fish & Richardson, 153 East 53rd St., New York, NY, 10022, as follows:

7 OBJECTIONS TO NOTICE

8 1. ABC objects to the Notice in its entirety because Price is not entitled to 9 discovery in the face of ABC's motion to strike Price's first amended complaint 10 pursuant to Section 425.16 of the California Code of Civil Procedure (the "Anti-11 SLAPP Motion").<sup>1</sup> ABC has made clear, on numerous occasions, including most 12 recently the parties' "early meeting of counsel" on July 29, 2008, and their Joint 13 Report on August 12, 2008, that Price will not be entitled to discovery prior to the 14 resolution of its Anti-SLAPP Motion. On July 28, 2008, the parties agreed that 15 ABC would have until September 22, 2008 to file the Anti-SLAPP Motion, in light
16 of Price's intent to file an amended complaint. On August 11, 2008, the Court
17 approved the parties' stipulation and briefing schedule for ABC's Anti-SLAPP 18 Motion.

19 Price is simply not entitled to discovery prior to the resolution of the Anti-20 SLAPP Motion. ABC has repeatedly confirmed that the Anti-SLAPP Motion will 21 be based upon Price's inability to establish the falsity of ABC's statements. Unless 22 Price can meet his burden of establishing a probability of success on his claim of

1 falsity, Price's defamation and intentional infliction of emotional distress claims will 2 be dismissed as a matter of law. ABC has met and conferred with Price on 3 countless occasions regarding the Anti-SLAPP Motion and these narrow – and 4 wholly dispositive – grounds. The parties further set a mutually acceptable date for 5 the Anti-SLAPP Motion to be filed and served – on or before September 22, 2008.
6 Since the Anti-SLAPP Motion will be premised primarily upon Price's inability to 7 establish the element of falsity<sup>2</sup>, Price does not need any discovery as to intent to 8 oppose the Anti-SLAPP motion.

9 Price's claim for defamation by implication does not alter this conclusion.
10 The threshold question on a claim for defamation by implication is whether a 11 statement can reasonably be interpreted as a provably false assertion of fact. See
12 Rosenaaur v. Scherer, 88 Cal. App. 4th 260, 264 (2001). This threshold question
13 must be decided as a matter of law. Id. Price's claim for defamation by implication 14 fails because, inter alia, Price cannot demonstrate that the alleged implications are 15 based upon provably false assertions of fact. Price's failure to satisfy this initial 16 threshold issue warrants dismissal of his defamation claim. See James v. San Jose 17 Mercury News, Inc., 17 Cal. App. 4th 1, 20 (1993). As such, in ruling on the Anti-18 SLAPP Motion, the Court need not reach the factual issue of ABC's intent to 19 convey the alleged implication (if any). Thus, Price does not need any discovery as 20 to intent in order to oppose the Anti-SLAPP motion.

21 Accordingly, there is no discovery that is essential for Price's opposition to 22 the Anti-SLAPP Motion. Under such circumstances, conducting discovery would 23 needlessly waste the parties' and the Court's resources and time. More importantly, 24 discovery prior to resolution of the Anti-SLAPP Motion would run afoul of the

26 <sup>2</sup> Truth is an absolute defense to Price's claims, and since Price is a public figure, 27 he bears the burden to prove falsity of ABC's statements. See Moyer v. Amador
28 Valley J. Union High School Dist., 225 Cal. App. 3d 720, 725 n.2 (1990).

1 central purpose of the Anti-SLAPP statute, which is to provide for the early 2 resolution of meritless actions brought to chill the valid exercise of the constitutional
3 right of freedom of speech. Thus, Price is not entitled to discovery pending
4 resolution of the Anti-SLAPP Motion.

5 2. ABC further objects to the Notice because the accompanying requests 6 for documents and things described in Attachment "A" are untimely. Pursuant to 7 Rule 30(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a deposition notice may be 8 accompanied by a Rule 34 request for production of documents. Rule 34, however, 9 requires that written discovery requests be made thirty (30) days prior to the date
10 responses are due. As such, ABC objects to the requests for documents and things 11 because it does not provide adequate time to respond.

1           3.     ABC further objects to the Notice because it is set for a date upon 2 which the witness and ABC's counsel are unavailable. Price made no attempt to 3 meet and confer regarding the scheduling of the deposition prior to serving the 4 Notice. ABC's counsel had mentioned to Price that its firm retreat would take place
5 in Las Vegas, Nevada, at the end of the last week in August. In addition, scheduling 6 the depositions of John Stossel, an extremely busy out of state witness, requires the 7 coordination of many schedules. Accordingly, even if Price is entitled to discovery 8 (he is not), the deposition date will need to be continued.
